Forecast For Scotland
Issued by Met Office Aberdeen
at 1600 on Tuesday 16 Feb 2021

++ Valid for broadcast between 1800 and 0600

Headline:
Sunshine and scattered showers Wednesday, severe gales far northwest.

This Evening and Tonight:
Showers becoming confined to far northwest then dying out, with clear periods developing. WInds easing, and turning colder, perhaps a touch of frost in sheltered snow-covered areas in northeast. Then rainband crossing northeast to all except Shetland overnight.

Wednesday:
A band of rain clearing mainland but crossing Northern Isles in morning. Elsewhere sunny spells and a few showers, but more frequent showers and severe gales for the Western Isles.

Outlook for Thursday to Saturday:
An unsettled few days with bands of wet and windy weather crossing the country. Generally mild with snow in northeast continuing to thaw.

(C) Crown Copyright 2021. Published by the Met Office.